Everest Business Funding is proud to announce the launch of their new California Small Business Funding Loan Program!

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, January 24, 2014

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Everest Business Funding is the leading "go-to" financier of no credit check, no collateral, capital resource solutions for small businesses. Everest Business Funding is proud to announce the launch of their business funding loan program in the state of California. This final acquisition of their California license, Everest Business Funding is now open for business in all 50 states!

Everest Business Funding serves industries of all types. Small Business owners looking for better financing alternatives to a small business bank loans can benefit from the financing tools EBF provides. Many small business owners instinctively turn to banks and credit unions for capital funding needs. It's no secret, though, that these entities tend to deliver low approval rates and unfavorable terms for the majority of businesses today. What good is a loan if the applicant can't get approved for it? And, even if the application is able to get approved by a bank or credit union, are borrowers able to wait the weeks or months that it takes to obtain the funds? For many business owners today, the answer is a resounding "no!" Everest Business Funding takes pride in outperforming their competitors when it comes to the products and services they offer and the delivery of them. EBF is dedicated to making the funding process as fast as possible.

"This is a fantastic opportunity that will bring EBF's top-tier business services to many California business owners looking for fast approvals for working capital." - Chad Trattner VP of Business Development at Everest Business Funding.

Everest Business Funding encourages all California business and owners, as well as business owners across the United States that are looking for quick capital, to contact them today to learn more about their stress-free financing options for small businesses.

"A breath of fresh air in a difficult lending environment describes Everest Business Funding. This company exceeded all our expectations as to performance, as described, in a three day start-to-finish settlement with funds transferred as an advance. The entire process was extremely efficient. Fast execution and underwriting process was seamless. As well, the staff was focused and eager to please. We could not be more pleased and have recommended the company to several other firms already." - Professional Services Firm, Washington DC.

Some examples of bad credit business loan services that EBF services through their nationwide expansion include:

Advances from 5k to 250k - Whether it is a business that needs a small loan to handle payroll or catch up on bills, or a business that needs a larger loan to grow successfully and quickly, business owners can find the dollar amount they need at Everest.

Affordable Payments - The most important element for the applicant to understand they will be able to repay the loan in affordable increments. Everest Business Funding will always make sure that their loans are repayable in increments that the loan signer can handle.

No Credit or Collateral Requirements - Luckily, Everest does not require their applicants to have high-end credit ratings or collateral requirements. This means new businesses that haven't had the chance to build a better credit rating can still be approved. It also means that applicants won't have to jeopardize your stock or future just to get a loan today.

Same Day up to 24 Hour Funding - One of the greatest benefits of a small business loan through Everest is that applicant will not have to wait the traditional 30 to 90 days that bank loans can require. While some applicants can receive their funding on the same day, others should have no longer than a 24 hour period to wait. This means fast funding for when certain bills or payroll issues just can't wait.

High-Quality Customer Service - Everest understands that having real-time customer service options are critical. They have the most highly skilled reps available to handle all customer's emails or calls anytime. Business owners do not have to sit around wondering, they just have to make contact, and they will receive their answers pronto.

Small Business Owners should not hesitate to take advantage of these new loan possibilities in California. Because of recent changes in business funding laws, Everest is now offering California business owners better financing alternatives to Small Business Loans from banks.
