

Client Testimonials Prove New York Trade Show Booth Designer, Skyline New York, Continues To Impress

HAUPPAUGE, NY, USA, February 6, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Skyline New York continues to earn praise from their clients for their trade show exhibits in New York. The company creates trade show booths in New York for businesses and organizations around the world.

Skyline New York has many satisfied customers including two recent clients, Allbobbleheads.com and the Bullit Group. These two businesses called upon Skyline New York to create exhibits for them. Based on the feedback and praise received, the exhibits were a success.

Allbobbleheads.com needed a welcoming exhibit that drew attendees into their booth for a closer view of their products. Skyline New York designed a trade booth that provided plenty of room for product displays, a tall table for catalog browsing and large graphics at the back of the display to draw attention to the booth and provide information at the same time.

Skyline has been a pleasure to work with for my Pop Up banners. The production is high quality and the entire organization is very professional. I will continue to use them for my future needs.”

Donna Thiele of Bullit Group

“The display booth was a big hit at our tradeshow in Vegas...and the DIRECTV party is this week too,” according to Andrew Hazen of Allbobbleheads.com.

The Bullit Group is a manufacturer of CAT Construction Phones. Their booth also required room for products to be displayed but they added an interactive tabletop where visitors to the booth could test out the CAT phones for themselves. The result was an open booth with plenty of room for guests to test out the phone, view the products up close and have their questions answered by Bullit Group representatives.

“Skyline has been a pleasure to work with for my Pop Up banners. The production is high quality and the entire organization is very professional. I will continue to use them for my future needs," said Donna Thiele of Bullit Group.

Skyline New York designs trade show exhibits in New York for use throughout the world. The New York trade show booth company is part of the global Skyline Exhibits network and offers more than 19 different exhibit systems.

"Many of our customers first come to Skyline because of the wide variety of exhibiting options we offer, but they stay with us year after year because of their experience working with us. We only use the best materials, which makes displays strong, long-lasting and vibrant and I think our clients really appreciate the hands-on experience they get with Skyline. They get to be heavily involved in the design process and have many opportunities for customization of the booth. It's very much a team-effort between Skyline and the client," explained Robert Watson, President of Skyline New York (www.skylinenewyork.com).

Skyline's exhibiting options includes banner stands, pop-up displays, tabletop displays and large and small walk-through island displays. Many of the trade show booths at New York's Skyline are portable and modular in nature, which means they fit with other systems so booths can adapt and change along with the clients' needs or budget.

The company has a large showroom in Hauppauge that is open to the public and offers free design consultations. To learn more about Skyline New York, visit them at <http://www.skylinenewyork.com/>.
