

Christian Author Alisa Massey Provides Hope for the Hopeless with Inspirational Book 'Redeemed'

ENID, OKLAHOMA, USA, February 6, 2014

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Recovered alcoholic and addict Alisa Massey recently released her inspirational Christian book "Redeemed." The book is a memoir on how Alisa, as a single mother, overcame and rose above her addiction.

A highly inspirational story, this mother and wife speaks up about her addiction to alcohol and drugs and the devastation that followed. Although the story begins in anguish, it ends on a lighter note. As Alisa cried out to God for help, He soon answered the call in the least expected way. The book is both encouraging and enlightening, offering hope for not only those enslaved by addiction but also for the hopeless in general.

"Alcohol is an insidious disease- make no mistake of that. Too many are unaware of alcohol's sting. Perhaps, they don't realize or they are in denial of the rising issue; or maybe they are aware of their transgression, but they're unsure of where to turn or whom to call. Many of its victims have families, including children. Their stories are not always widely heard." - Excerpt from Alisa Massey's book "Redeemed."
