NASHVILLE , TN, USA, February 11, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Yolanda Conley Shields, speaker, coach and CEO of Let's Go Innovate, recently launched her book, Letters to Our Sons.

Countless books have been published suggesting self-help advice for mothers and their sons to nurture their relationships, but none have offered both no-nonsense insight and humor with impactful faith-based take-away tools to help a mother shape her young boy into a successful man of Godly character.

Letters to our Sons, Yolanda Conley Shields debut book is penned in a heartfelt, entertaining and motivational tone offering scriptural support as well as insightful steps to encourage mothers facing life's challenges. With diverse, comedic and heartbreaking stories, Letters to our Sons www.lettertooursons.com captures the struggles and victories mothers face day-to-day raising their sons, and offers helpful and relatable words of wisdom and inspiration. As a mother you want the finest for your son, but the battle can be tough with peer pressure and societal influence. Letters to our Sons is sure to leave you encouraged and equipped to not only write your own son a letter but to partner with God to shape and move your son to live out the purposes God has designed for his life. This book is sure to create, grow and shape the unique bonds mothers have with their sons and make it last a lifetime!
