"Many buyers fear that they simply can't afford to build their own home. There's so much misinformation out there, and the process seems so overwhelming that they don't realize how many great financing options are available. We work closely with all of our clients to provide them with the best home loans on the market today," said Bryony Chandler, Marketing Coordinator at BGC

Residential Pty Ltd (<http://www.wahousingcentre.com.au/about-us>).

WA Housing Centre utilises their in-house finance specialists, The Loan Company, to offer buyers the best possible rates on new home financing. With as little as $3,000 upfront, WA Housing Centre can make the dream of homeownership a reality for first home buyers in WA.

"By working with us, new home buyers have access to our years of experience and knowledge about the home financing process. We can help them with everything from application details to applying for a First Home Owners Grant. Many buyers may not realise that the FHOG in WA was recently increased to $10,000, making now the absolute perfect time to build a new home," Chandler said.
