

Next Horizon Adds Staff & Expands Office Space In Anticipation Of Continued Growth In 2014

Next Horizon continues their company growth and moves into a successful looking 2014 year.

ORLANDO, FLA., USA, March 4, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Next Horizon Networking & Technology, one of Orlando's leading computer and web technology design and services companies, is proud to report that 2013 was a record-setting year for business revenue. The company signed more than 50 new clients in 2013, added five new fulltime staff members, and finalized plans to remodel and expand Next Horizon's headquarters in Sanford.

"So far, 2014 is continuing the trend of increased business for Next Horizon, with January ranking as our best month ever in our 16-year history," said Harry Ellis, Vice President of Information Technology at Next Horizon.

By focusing on marketing to medium-to-large customers, and increasing the company's visibility in the business community, Next Horizon has added numerous prestigious clients to its roster including:

- Night Lite Pediatrics
- Fence Outlet
- .decimal
- Service One AC & Heating
- KOZ Law
- City of Winter Springs
- Guy Seligman Attorney at Law
- Paysmart
- Alligator Shredding
- Giarard Environmental Services
- WFME

Next Horizon specializes in providing a complete range of technology solutions, including web design and hosting, e-commerce solutions, mobile web design, search engine optimization, networking and programming, Internet marketing, and cloud computing.

Many of Next Horizon's clients approach the company for assistance with websites that are not producing the desired results, such as sales leads or e-commerce sales. In fact, Bill Gouty, Service One Air Conditioning founder and owner, says that in just three months his business increased 35 percent after hiring Next Horizon.

Ellis credits Next Horizon's success for his team's constant efforts to stay on top of the next "big thing" by learning and growing with today's technology.

"This is an exciting time for us at Next Horizon, as we continue to add new clients and grow," Ellis said. "I know we are doing right by our customers since 90 percent of our new business comes in via referral. The fact that our clients are happy to recommend us says a lot about the work we do."

About Next Horizon, "Making Sense in Technology, Web Design, SEO & Cloud Computing" — Backed by unparalleled technical design ability and customer service, Next Horizon is a cloud computing, web technology design and IT services company touted by clients for results-producing websites.
