

Newly Crowd-funded Band Pixley is set to Debut at the House of Blues on Sunset April 5th

Pixleys' highly anticipated debut album Harken will be released during their exclusive fan only show.

SEAL BEACH , CA, USA, March 24, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Orange County, CA: In celebration of the kickstarter backed album release, Pixley will be debuting new songs from their album at the House of Blues on Sunset blvd. on April 5th. The founder and lead guitarist of the band Josh Todd said "From the kickstarter video to selling out the House of Blue on Sunset is just incredible. Our fans supported us %100 of the way and this show is dedicated to everyone of them"

Pixley is comprised of guitarist Josh Todd and singer/violinist Elizabeth Rhors who first met by chance through a Craigslist ad, Josh had posted, looking for singer to play guitar with. However, in between rehearsals, the duo couldn't stop talking about one thing, what defines California Country. Josh Todd, founder of Pixley, quotes "If ZZ top is Southern Rock & Roll, who represents California country?" They linked with songwriter/producer Jonathan Lord who collaborated in crafting, what they call the "California Country Sound" in Spring 2013. Harken, their debut single features elements of strings, folk, pop, rock, Indie, R&B with an uplifting and kinetic atmosphere. Harken is seeing much success with its recent release through a variety of internet music apps including iTunes Radio, iHeart Radio, Spotify, Rdio, and Amazon Mp3. garnering a dedicated and loyal fanbase along the way.
