

New MindStir Media Historical Fiction Series Receives High Praise

N.E. Brown and S.L. Jenkins share their fictional story in the first three books of the Galveston: 1900: Indignities series.

NEW YORK, NY, USA, March 28, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Galveston: 1900: Indignities series – which includes The Arrival (Book One, 9780989474887), The Aftermath (Book Two, 9780989716864), and The Atonement (Book Three, 9780989882040) – is a historical fiction series packed with dark suspense, romance and tragedy. The three books to date follow the main character, Catherine, and her tragic life as an orphan growing up in Galveston, Texas. The series also highlights the monstrous hurricane of 1900 and its aftermath.

“The Indignities series is incredibly powerful,” said J.J. Hebert, president of MindStir Media self-publishing company. “Catherine perseveres through the death of her mother and other loved ones and grows into a woman and mother herself. I’m looking forward to seeing what happens in book four...”

The series has received rave reviews. It was praised by one reviewer as a story that is “distinctly imagined, thoroughly researched and brilliantly plotted ...”

The first three books in the Indignities series are available online at Amazon.com, Barnes & Noble and other fine retailers worldwide. Wholesale distribution is also available through Ingram. Book four in the series will be released in 2014. To learn more about the author N.E. Brown and co-author S.L. Jenkins visit <http://www.nebrown.com>
