

The Trucking Industry Continues to Rely on Consultation Services Through the First Quarter of 2014

The first quarter of 2014 has seen a marked increase in industry interest in consultation and market analysis services from Ahern and Associates.

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, April 7, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Trucking and logistics consulting firm Ahern and Associates saw a record number of mergers and acquisitions in the trucking industry through 2013 along with strong demand for their operational review and other consulting services. With the first quarter of 2014 behind it, the industry is still taking stock of what the year is likely to bring. Nonetheless, the combination of some of the most challenging weather conditions on record and the recent Hours of Service rulings has made this year one of the hardest for fleet owners and drivers alike.

This has led to an ever increasing focus in industry publications and news media on how an industry that quite literally drives the American import/export and manufacturing economy can respond to these pressures. These pressures have led many to seek the opinions of Andy Ahern, founder and CEO of Ahern & Associates. Having already been featured widely in both industry and mainstream media including several features in Fleet Owner.com as well as the pallet industry's publication, Pallet Profile, Andy was recently asked to provide his insight to a string of other trucking and logistics publications as well as several online media outlets.
