

A Personalized Memory Chest From MemoryChests.com Makes The Perfect Wedding Gift

BISMARCK, ND, USA, April 9, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Personalized memory chests from MemoryChests.com make lasting wedding gifts. These handcrafted wooden chests can be laser monogrammed with the couple initials to commemorate their special day and mark the beginning of their life together.

With wedding season coming up, MemoryChests.com has a unique and meaningful gift idea: personalized memory chests. These handcrafted, 100% wood chests are certain to become a family heirloom for the special couple. Chests can be monogrammed with the first initial of the couple's last name in the middle and the initials of their first names to either side. Monograms are laser-engraved on the front of the chest and are available in a variety of fonts.

"The memory chest makes a perfect wedding gift. It's beautiful, functional and handcrafted to last a lifetime. We carry several different sizes of memory chests but for weddings, we recommend the large size. It can be given ahead of time to hold everything to couple needs for the upcoming wedding or it can be given at the wedding as a special storage chest for the wedding dress, champagne glasses and other wedding day mementos. We have several customers who have incorporated the chests as part of their home décor and use them for all sorts of things from storing linens and blankets to special dishware," said Bob Beck, founder of MemoryChests.com (<http://www.memorychests.com/>).

MemoryChests.com offers chests Small, Medium and Large Memory Chests in Oak, Cherry or Espresso finishes. The large chests recommended as wedding gifts measure 41"L x 21"W x 21"H and start at just $295. All chests are handcrafted, featuring solid hardwood corner posts and hardwood veneered panels. The Oak chests are made from Red Oak wood. The Cherry and Espresso chests are made from Birch wood. All are made from 100% wood. There are no MDF or fiberboard components used in the chests. An optional cedar base is available for all chests.

All memory chests have two lid supports for safety. These supports keep the lids open in any position. Some assembly is required upon receipt, but instructions, complete with photos, are included with every order. MemoryChests.com offers a 100% satisfaction guarantee.

"Memory chests have a long history all around the world. It used to be very common for a woman to enter into her marriage with a chest full of the things she'd need to make her new house into a home. We're bringing back that tradition with a modern twist - adding the marital monogram. If you've been searching for a different kind of wedding gift, something that the couple can use and cherish throughout their entire marriage, you won't go wrong with a memory chest," noted Beck.
