The company features a state-of-the-art TeamSpeak and Mumble control panel available exclusively on www.guildshout.com. "Our control panel has more features and functionality than any of our competitors," explains Ken Herbert. "We continue to listen to our customer's feedback and are constantly adding functionality that meets their demands. Our customers do not always have time to learn how to moderate their server through the TeamSpeak or Mumble client so we make it really easy to get started and maintain order on their server."

With Teamspeak and Mumble Servers starting at only $2 per month, we are both affordable and reliable. Most of our servers are up 24/7 with nearly 100% uptime and we guarantee it. If the server does go down due to a technical issue we will work with our customers to credit a portion of their cost. We also provide our customers with the first month free and stand behind our 60 day satisfaction guarantee.

For over 4 years, GuildShout.com has been a Leader in TeamSpeak Hosting and Mumble Hosting. Start a free 1 month trial today at www.guildshout.com.
