

SMi Group Releases Attendee List for Smart Water Systems 2014

Water utilities and industry leaders to gather at Smart Water Systems 2014

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, April 14, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Just a fortnight remains until SMi open their doors to host the return of Smart Water Systems 2014. With over 20 presentations, an interactive workshop and various networking opportunities, the conference is now almost sold out. For those who are interested in attended registration is open for a limited time at www.smart-water-systems.com

SMi Group have worked closely with a speaker panel that includes industry leaders from Thames Water, Southern Water, Scottish Water, Vitens, Delta N.V, WaterBee and Epal, to put together this year's conference agenda. To read speaker interviews and to download a brochure visit www.smart-water-systems.com

Water Efficiency Manager, Andrew Tucker, one of the key speakers from Thames Water commented:

This event is a great platform to say what needs to be said”

Andrew Tucker, Thames Water

“The Smart Water Systems conference provides an opportunity for multi-sector input into a rapidly growing agenda. With increasing drivers for smart technologies running in parallel to an evolving consumer demand for information, this event is a great platform to say what needs to be said, and push the agenda to think of the consumer solution first.”
