We are Pleased to Announce that The North American Junior Amateur Championship Is Partnered With Gold Coast Junior Golf Foundation

LITCHFIELD, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, April 24, 2014

/EINPresswire.com/ -- We are Pleased to Announce that The North American Junior Amateur Golf Championship is partnered with Gold Coast Junior Golf Foundation. Up until now, US Junior Amateur has focused on players throughout the United States. Now, the North American Junior Amateur Golf Championship will host international players. The North American Junior Amateur Golf Championship will host 150 of the best amateur players in the United States, Canada and Mexico in December of 2014. This will be a 5 day event. Qualified players will compete the two first days in stroke play which will cut the competition to 64 of the top finishers.

The last three days of the championship will be conducted as match play events that will identify the North American Junior Champion for both boys and girls 13 to 19 years of age. During the five days of competition, there will also be player events to attend, including a banquet dinner and an awards ceremony.

The North American Junior Amateur Golf Championship is the premiere amateur tournament in North America. For more information about NAJA, contact northamericanjunioramateur@gmail.com
