Pringle Homebuilding Group LLC, one of central Florida's premier custom builders has announced it will now build new custom homes in the Loch Leven Community in beautiful Mount Dora, Florida.

Loch Leven Community in Mount Dora, Florida

PHG has acquired lots in Phase 5 of the community to expand its custom homebuilding operations in Lake County. "Loch Leven has long been known as a premier community in the Mount Dora area," says Steve Nordstrom, PHG's President. "These lots are a great fit for our custom home design and construction capabilities. The elegance of the community makes it a great draw for our clients." The company plans to offer several new home designs for Loch Leven, featuring tile roofs, side-entry garages and the top quality Pringle is known for.

Loch Leven is among the area's most beautiful gated lakefront communities, located in a natural environment with heavily wooded parcels of land interspersed with preserved wetlands. Situated along the spring-fed Lake Loch Leven, the community is known as a natural haven. A private boat ramp, play lot, lighted tennis court and nature trail add to the list of amenities.

Pringle has recently been awarded numerous top honors for entries in the Lake-Sumter Home Builder Association's Parade of Homes competition of 2014. The Company's Huntly plan was honored as the Grand Champion of the Parade for compiling the best judged score versus all competitors, as well as the First Place Award in its category among a field of five entries.

"We're genuinely excited to be part of this community," adds Nordstrom. "We look forward to breaking ground on our first home in the near future and becoming part of this prestigious community."
