B Virtual Inc. Partners With Proctoring Integration Provider SmarterProctoring™

Online exam proctoring authority B Virtual is pleased to announce a partnership with SmarterProctoring, a leader in the LMS integration of proctored exams.

ATLANTA , GA, USA, June 4, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- B Virtual is pleased to announce a partnership with SmarterProctoring, an integrated proctoring process provider. SmarterProctoring and B Virtual have partnered to seamlessly integrate virtual proctoring within higher education learning management systems.

B Virtual Inc. Online Proctoring Partners With SmarterProctoring™

"B Virtual and SmarterServices™ are combining professional live online proctors with the SmarterProctoring process management technology," says Rick Beaudry, CEO of B Virtual. SmarterServices President Dr. Mac Adkins adds, "This is an exciting enhancement to process management, security and quality control for monitoring students during online exam sessions. Institutions now have a world-class proctoring service technology integrated right into their own learning management systems, providing easy access to scheduling and tracking of proctors for their online exams."

SmarterProctoring is a product of SmarterServices LLC, which manages all modalities of proctoring including virtual proctors, testing centers and approved individuals. SmarterProctoring provides a dashboard panel for students, faculty and testing center administrators to manage all proctoring tasks including identifying acceptable proctors, documented messaging, scheduling and payment processing.

Rick Beaudry also comments that, "Managing online exam proctoring across all geographies can be done seamlessly within an institution's own LMS adding the confidence that the student and proctor activities are being monitored and recorded by a team of professional proctors. Institutions choosing to leverage this partnership will now have access to full transparency into online student and proctor activities."
