

BluePay Chosen as Payment Processor for PGA Tour Event

For the fifth year running, BluePay is the exclusive gift card and transaction processor for the Travelers Championship Golf Tournament

NAPERVILLE, IL, USA, June 12, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Merchant account provider BluePay is again partnering with Global eTelecom Inc. (GETI) to provide credit card and gift card processing for the Travelers Championship Golf Tournament, held June 16-22, in Cromwell, Connecticut. BluePay will be processing transactions made by volunteers and patrons at the event.

"We are proud to again be the chosen payment processor for this year's Travelers Championship Golf Tournament," said Kristen Gramigna, Chief Marketing Officer at BluePay. "For the fifth year running, we will handle transactions from food vendor sales to ticket sales and the event's auction."

Vendors such as Ben & Jerry's, Dunkin' Donuts, Subway, and Joe Brandi Catering will use BluePay's payment processing services at this week-long tournament.

"BluePay has always been a company known for fast, easy, and secure payment options," Gramigna continued. "We're happy to offer our winning solutions at an event such as the Travelers Championship Golf Tournament."

Beyond payment processing for retailers and events, BluePay's merchant account solutions include payment gateways; electronic billing and invoicing; tokenization; end-to-end encryption; and other merchant services. GETI is a premier electronic check, Automated Clearing House (ACH), and gift/loyalty card processor.
