

Industry Mandarins Invited for a Dekko On-board the Maharajas Express

A dekho for the industry mandarins of various esteemed Public Sector Enterprises was organized onboard Maharajas' Express.

NEW DELHI, INDIA, June 13, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In a move to familiarize the industry leaders with the Maharajas' Express – the super luxury train of India – a dekho for the industry mandarins of various esteemed Public Sector Enterprises was organized onboard Maharajas' Express. The Chairman Railway Board, Member Staff and Member Mechanical from Ministry of Railways along with Chairman & Managing Directors, Directors of reputed Public Sector Enterprises graced the occasion. It was a moment of pride and joy for the officials and their spouses to experience the luxury and world class hospitality aboard the Maharajas' Express- World's Leading Luxury Train. Maharajas' Express is owned and operated by The Indian Railway Catering and Tourism Corporation Limited (IRCTC) and started operations in March 2010.

The luxury train offered exceptional fine dining experience and served an immaculately planned cocktail dinner to all guests. All the dignified guests were delighted to receive their framed pictures with the luxury train in backdrop as souvenirs.

It is no surprise that the Maharajas Express has the credit of being the most regal train in India. Undoubtedly a lot of conscientious hard work and planning is put into making the train a world class product that it is today. It resonates with the golden era of the past when perfection was the last word and every item aboard Maharajas' Express reflects the elegance of its time. Great attention is paid to the minutest of the details, the crockery used in the dining cars is plated with pure gold and the cutlery is ornamental. The water supplied for the showers on the train is filtered using an online filtration system. The cuisine is drawn right from the recipes of the Maharaja kitchens and the breads and muffins are baked right on the train. Maharajas' Express
