

Intetics Among Best Outsourcing Companies in the World for 8 Consecutive Year

Intetics announces its eighth consecutive inclusion in The Global Outsourcing 100 list compiled by the IAOP.

WILLMETTE, IL, USA, June 16, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Intetics is pleased to announce its eighth consecutive inclusion in The Global Outsourcing 100 list compiled annually by the International Association of Outsourcing Professionals (IAOP). The list includes the best companies in the industry and serves as a helpful guide in choosing an outsourcing partner.

The Global Outsourcing 100 is an opt-in independent assessment of the capabilities of outsourcing service providers and advisors. "IAOP is continuously striving to make The Global Outsourcing 100 list an important resource tool in the outsourcing decision-making process," said Michael Corbett, IAOP Chairman. "With developing economies expected to see high growth and the global economy accelerating in 2014, choosing the right outsourcing partners will be more important than ever."

Intetics ranked among the top Rising Stars in 2014 and was listed in ten additional sub lists. Its 81st rank was achieved mainly due to its balanced performance in all four criteria considered: size and growth, customer references, organizational competencies, and management capabilities. Commenting on the results, Intetics President and Founder Boris Kontsevoi said: "The fact that we've been on the list of the top 100 outsourcing companies for eight consecutive years is a remarkable demonstration of our commitment to excellence and quality service."

Intetics was also named in a number of Best 10 and Best 20 sub-lists, including:

- Best 20 Companies in the Services Industry
- Best 10 Rising Stars in:
 - No. of Centers Worldwide
 - Employees in Eastern Europe
 - United Kingdom
 - Industry-Specific Services

Research & Development Services

Best 20 Rising Stars in:

Technology (Hardware & Software) Industry

Information/Communication Technology Services

Western Europe

United States

Companies apply for inclusion on the lists by completing an online application. Applications are then judged by an independent seven-person panel of experienced outsourcing buyers and the resulting list is separated based on company size. The 2014 panel was led by IAOP chief advisor of thought leadership, IAOP, Jagdish Dalal, COP and president of JDalal Associates, LLC. "Each year the competition to be named to The Global Outsourcing 100 list continues to reach higher levels," said Dalal. "Given the strong competition, getting named to these lists is a great recognition."

The full list can be viewed on the IAOP website. Relative rankings, selection process details, and company strengths are featured in a special advertising feature, produced by IAOP, in the June 16, 2014 Fortune 500 issue of FORTUNE® magazine.
