Write- In Candidate Boldly Enters AZ Gubernatorial Race

"We the people aim to shock & awe the two party political juggernaut that strangle holds Arizona's Citizens by winning the hearts and the votes of the people. Having no Political Affiliations means more power to the people and under my Governorship I will speak the truth, be honest and serve the people with care. It is now time to turn frustration into action. The bleak prospects that face us as a state and nation call with a strong clear voice for someone to stand up who is not afraid but can and will lead in the face of fierce opposition and possible harm." J. Johnson

Join the fight! We need your help. Let's make history!

J. Johnson would be the first Arizona Governor of African American descent and the first to win as an Arizonan write-in candidate.
