PINE BROOK, NJ, USA, June 18, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The 46th annual Jersey Awards were held on June 4, 2014, and Skyline New Jersey proudly accepted top honors in two categories, helping to prove that the trade show marketing company is at the top of their game. The company not only attended and accepted awards at this year's Jersey Awards - Skyline New Jersey is also an Annual Ad Club sponsor, and provided the exhibition display boards for this illustrious event.

Over 400 entries competed for recognition. The team at Skyline New Jersey won both of the design categories they entered: custom trade show displays 200 square feet and under, as well as trade show stands 400 square feet and over. Judging was completed by members of the Westchester Advertising Club and other professionals from the area.

"Being recognized for design excellence and top exhibit marketing firm in New Jersey by advertising agencies is rewarding. It's a testimony to our design team, they are the best," said Scott Price, President of Skyline New Jersey (www.skylinenj.com).

The dinner theme of the Jersey Awards this year was centered on savoring the flavor of the classic Jersey diner. As attendees enjoyed delicious cuisine, 241 trophies were awarded to agencies, designers, corporations, and non-profit groups. Herb Barry and Terrie Carr (of Interstate Outdoor and Greater Media respectively) emceed the event and kept the crowd engaged with humorous banter.

"These awards are a result of the pride and focus our entire team has toward producing the best possible end product for our clients. We see each new custom trade show design as a challenge to do something we can be proud of, something we've never done before," said Price.
