

Top 250 Recruitment firm Church International celebrates landmark 30th Anniversary

Church International, a leading IT recruitment consultancy serving the European market is today celebrating 30 years of being in business.

MAIDSTONE, KENT, UK, June 23, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Now a Recruitment International Top 250 Company, the organisation boasts a team of 15 specialist recruiters who work for an impressive list of clients ranging from established FTSE-100 market leaders to exciting start-ups.

Chriss Andrews, Founder and CEO commented: "there have certainly been challenges along the way but I'm extremely proud of what we have achieved over the past 30 years. We have built a vibrant team committed to excellence through unparalleled service and I'm proud to have been able to play a part in their personal development which in turn has led to the successful growth of the company."

Speaking of how the recruitment industry has evolved over the years, Chriss went on to comment "our consultative approach has always been what has set us apart in this industry. Our specialists have been dedicated to guiding our clients and candidates through the ever changing legislation affecting recruiting and working practices, particularly in Europe, as well as acting as advisors on all recruitment-related matters.

We are always looking at innovative ways to match clients with the most talented candidates. This approach ensures that we are still winning prestigious new clients 30 years on because of our commitment to add value at every level. It is this personal touch that has earned us the reputation of being the face of recruitment!"

Active in several market sectors to include Banking & Financial Services, Engineering, Technical Services & Solutions, Accounting & Legal and more, the company's plans for 2015 include the extension of its successful Academy for young stars, further expansion into its already successful European market and continued involvement with local charities as part of its ongoing pledge to support the local community.
