

Medical Management Association Offers New Products

Medical Management Association brings together highly qualified individuals to assist businesses with medical management benefits and managed care solutions.

DELAFIEND, WA, USA, June 25, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Medical Management Association, assisting with provider contracting and revenue improvement, has recently announced two new products available to clients: collective solution for self-funding and health care financing solution for employers Gary Wroblewski, President and Founder of Medical Management Association, remarks "these innovative, one of a kind programs, aim to protect the employer, reduce costs, and protect assets."

The Collective Solutions Program has the potential to save employers hundreds of thousands of dollars. This unique program brings together independent employers to reduce volatility, risk, cost, and improve efficiencies. This program permits the employer to enjoy benefits of self-insurance, but large claims absorbed across all members.

The Self-Funded program is a new and innovative program that provides small business employers the advantages of self-funding without unexpected costs. This unique program can be tailored specifically for your business and could amount to a refund of tens of thousands of dollars with one predictable monthly payment.

For more information about either of these programs, visit our website at mm-assoc.com or call us at 262-367-1150. One of our highly qualified staff members will be happy to assist.
