

Guardian Mortgage Executive Selected for Inaugural Class of 2014 Rising Stars

Guardian's own Marcus McCue selected to the 2014 class of HousingWire Rising Stars

PLANO, TEXAS, USA, July 3, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Home mortgage loan industry leader Guardian Mortgage Company, Inc. is honored to announce the selection of Marcus McCue to the 2014 class of HousingWire Rising Stars and for being recognized as the next generation of housing market key influencers.

Each year, HousingWire selects an elite group of industry professionals under 40 who have become leaders in their respective fields. These honored few are recognized for their outstanding achievements and impacts toward moving the market forward on a daily basis.

"It is truly an honor to be associated with this group of top industry executives and represent Guardian Mortgage for all our dedicated colleagues," says Marcus McCue, Executive Vice President and Chief Business Development Officer for Guardian Mortgage Company. "At Guardian Mortgage, we are passionate about helping our clients discover the mortgage that best fits their short-term housing needs and long-term financial plans. We are equally as committed and passionate about working with the Government through advocacy for homeowners and the mortgage industry."

Making a difference and forging the path to a stronger, more resilient mortgage industry is a principle of the Guardian Mortgage culture. As one of the company's leaders and an active regulatory advocate, it's no surprise that Marcus is being recognized by HousingWire for this unique and powerful award.
