

New American Funding Opens New Henderson Office

New American Funding, a national mortgage banker, is pleased to announce the opening of their newest office in Henderson, Nevada.

TUSTIN, CA, USA, July 3, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- New American Funding, a national mortgage banker, is pleased to announce the opening of their newest office in Henderson, Nevada. Mortgage lending professionals, local real estate agents and members of the Nevada community were invited to attend this grand opening event co-sponsored by Ticor Title located at the Henderson branch office, 1348 Paseo Verde Parkway, Suite 200, Henderson, NV 89012.

Over 150 people attended the reception held on Tuesday, June 24th, from 5-9 PM. Attendees had an opportunity to meet CEO and COO of New American Funding, Rick Arvielo and Christy Bunce along with several Loan Consultants from the Henderson office. Henderson Chamber of Commerce member, Bill Bokelmann, and a House of Representative staff member, Stephen Paredes, were also in attendance; each presented the branch with certificates of Special Recognition in honor of becoming a contributing business to the City of Henderson. The event was themed as a Luau and had fun Hawaiian themed décor such as tropical flowers, leis, crazy sun glasses, a chocolate fountain and raffle tickets to win New American Funding prizes. Complimentary Hawaiian food and deserts were also served at the event.

New American Funding Branch Manager, Michael Scialabba, said, "It was a great turn out filled with lots of socializing and giveaways." Area Manager, Chris Garza, also said about the event, "Today makes another great day in the history of New American Funding in the state of Nevada. In 16 months we've been able to open two offices both in great locations with the most amazing people to support and work at these locations. It is a true testament to New American Funding as we continue to raise the bar of excellence in purchase business and leadership in the state of Nevada."
