Walker Mobility provides is electric scooter, wheelchair, and stroller rentals to Loews.

ORLANDO, FLORIDA, USA, July 8, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Walker Mobility is a family-owned rental business in Orlando, Florida, specializing in renting electric scooters, wheelchairs, and baby strollers. Its electric rentals are commonly referred to by the umbrella term, Electric Convenience Vehicles, or ECV's.

The company has been in business for more than thirty years, and has stayed that way by consistently providing its customers with an outstanding rental experience. "We are a brick and mortar company, well established," a company spokesman said with obvious pride. Walker Mobility customers, he continued, "can count on us to provide quality rental gear and superior customer service."

Walker Mobility is proud to announce an exclusive arrangement with Loews Hotels Orlando, the on-property hotel chain at Universal Studios. They are now the sole provider of ECV's to the on-property, Universal Studios hotel chain.

Walker Mobility has been in business since 1981, and in the years since first opening their doors has built a solid client base by providing its customers with the products and services that make their stay in Orlando and Central Florida easier and more enjoyable. "The cart worked perfectly, and was a great asset to my mother-in-law!" said one satisfied customer. "Could not have been a better experience, and we recommended you to many throughout our stay."

"It was a pleasure dealing with Walker Mobility," another customer said, who went on to describe the company's commitment to going above-and-beyond the call of duty. "One day we were at Disney and my wife forgot her key. Within fifteen to twenty minutes, your people were there with a new key for her. GREAT SERVICE!"

While Walker Mobility remains a real-world company with a brick-and-mortar location, its customers are able to book their rentals safely and securely using an online form on the company's website. Customers can pick up their rental once they get to Orlando.

"Just as you told me, my scooter was waiting for me when we arrived at our resort hotel," said a customer who used the secure online order form. "At 70 with [chronic obstructive pulmonary disease], the scooter allowed me to keep up with my children and grandchildren – often I was even leading them! I was able to take part in every event, ride, show, and restaurant everyone else enjoyed. Thank you!"

Walker Mobility goes that extra mile for its customers by delivering their ECV rental right to their hotel, if the hotel allows it. This delivery service is free, and is an extra bit of attention to customers' needs that puts Walker Mobility that much more ahead of the competition. They can also deliver a rental to a private home.

The experience of Mr. Smith may best summarize the performance of Walker Rentals, and its commitment to delivering superior customer service. "I cannot write enough positive comments about our experience with your company," he said after he got home. "We LOVED our scooters and were able to keep up the whole week. People stopped me to ask where we rented our scooters, and I sang your praises."
