

Million Dollar Rap Competition

"The Million Dollar Hip Hop Challenge", a book by rap legends Kool Rock of the Fat Boys and Sean XLG proposes a skills competition to determine the g.o.a.t.

FORT WASHINGTON, MARYLAND,
UNITED STATES, July 8, 2014

/EINPresswire.com/ -- When it comes to the question who is the greatest rapper of all time, the response is overwhelming. Over the years every major media outlet has weighed in on the topic from MTV to VH1, along with thousands of fans.

Amazingly, there is no general consensus as to who is number one but we've seen a number of artists mentioned from Eminem and Jay Z to Tupac and Biggie. Now rap legends Kool Rock of the Fat Boys and Sean XLG go beyond creating a list and propose an actual skills competition to determine who the greatest rapper of all time is with a million dollar prize going to the winner. The competition is designed to measure overall skills including lyrics, songwriting and battle rhymes to live performances. The competition is introduced in the new book "The Million Dollar Hip Hop Challenge, A Battle for Rhyme Supremacy: Who Is Really the Greatest Rapper of All Time?" by Damon "Kool Rock" Wimbley of the Fat Boys and Sean XLG Mitchell and invites all the top rap acts over the last 20 plus years to participate from Jay Z, Lil Wayne, Eminem, Kanye and Rick Ross to DMX, Nas, Rakim, Black Thought, 50 Cent, Ice Cube and Big Daddy Kane.

Kool Rock explains "the majority of the lists we've seen of the so-called greatest are bogus and only a few warrant any legitimate respect. For the most part, if you weren't into hip hop from the beginning you will absolutely not understand how to compile a real list. If you really want to know who's the best let's have a skills competition and find out."

The book outlines and details the competition and provides a categorical system to rate emcees. Additionally, the book details how skills are measured and creatively demonstrate an array of elite rhymes as the basis of the competition. A million dollars is on the line and winner takes all along with the title of g.o.a.t. Rappers such as Biggie, Tupac, Heavy D and others who are unable to participate can be represented by their material posthumously.

About The Authors:

Damon "Kool Rock" Wimbley is a member of the multi-platinum rap group the Fat Boys, the first rap act featured in a major motion film "Disorderlies" and co-headlined the first major hip hop tour the Fresh Fest. Sean XLG is the first rapper to win a national music competition, creator of Adult Contemporary Rap and author of "Hip Hop Hooray: Celebrating 30 Years of Rap Music".

"The Million Dollar Hip Hop Challenge, A Battle for Rhyme Supremacy: Who Is Really the Greatest Rapper of All Time?" is available on amazon.com

PRESS CONTACT:

ALB Management

email: albmngt@gmail.com

“

the majority of the lists we've seen of the so-called greatest rappers are bogus. If you really want to know who's the best let's have a skills competition and find out.

Damon "Kool Rock" Wimbley

Chris Howard

ALB Management

12407236106

email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <http://www.einpresswire.com>

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases.

© 1995-2015 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.