After assignments at Ramstein, Germany, Hickam AFB, HI, Wheeler Army Air Field, HI, and Youngson, South Korea, Pamela retired in 1999 from Ft. Hood, Texas. She then entered her second career at L3 Communications where she completed her Bachelor's degree in Computer Science, Computer studies. She provided software support for tactical systems where she was embedded with the Military Units in Kuwait and Iraq.

The primary system that she supported at that time was the Integrated Meteorological System (IMETS) which is the meteorological component of the Intelligence and Electronic Warfare. "This was my first actual experience in a combat zone" Pamela recalls, "but what stands out the most in my mind is not the danger we were in, but the real purpose of us being there. One day, on Easter Sunday on our convoy through IRAQ, I was approached by a young boy and he asked me 'what is your name?' I told him 'My name is Pamela' and he looked directly into my eyes and said 'I love you Pamela.' I knew right then and there how deeply the American Military was appreciated in their country."

When Pamela returned to the United States she was ready to embark on another career, and since she had always loved houses and going to open houses, she thought Real Estate would be an exciting new profession for her. She relocated to Hawaii and graduated from the Graduate Real Estate Institute and now serves the local Military community near installations such as Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam and Schofield Barracks. "I find it very rewarding to assist Military families find their ideal homes" she says, "I also enjoy assisting them with the opportunity to build wealth because of home ownership. I am truly 'Living The Dream' here in Hawaii as a full time local Realtor assisting active duty military and veterans own a portion of what they have defended!"
