

Dr Jacob Ng: Spreading Educational Opportunities Around the World

Dr Jacob Ng is a mental health services professional who is driven to expand the scope and reach of higher education.

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, July 26, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr Jacob Ng is a mental health services professional and leader in higher education who has it burned deep in his conscious to help both his local and global communities. In addition to the miraculous work he does to relieve people of their mental suffering, Dr Jacob Ng plays an important role in securing a spot at American universities for international students.

While at a respected American institution, Dr Jacob Ng successfully promoted US education and recruited and increased enrollment from 70 to 2000 international students per year, which generated over $10 million in revenue over the course of two years. He also successfully expanded a school program from 70 to 200 online courses, including a 2+2 online program with students in China and Korea that generates over $4 million annually.

Dr Jacob Ng has developed and extended his institution's study abroad programs to Cuba, China, England, Vietnam, Jamaica, Ghana, El Salvador, Mexico, the Mexican border, Spain, Costa Rica, and Egypt. Dr Jacob Ng has also successfully initiated and established partnerships and agreements with educational, business, and governmental organizations in China, Thailand, Vietnam, Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Hong Kong, India, and Mongolia in order to strengthen educational programs.

Dr Jacob Ng is highly competent in cross-cultural communication and understanding educational contract negotiations. He is adept in his ability to speak to leaders and facilitate fund raising as he knows fund raising is the key to students being able to realize their dreams. His efforts have put him in a prominent international position as he established a partnership with the South African Minister of Education and Social Services. Dr Jacob Ng was the keynote speaker for the South African Higher Education Conventions for two years and represented the state of California in signing an agreement with Western Cape, South Africa to promote educational ties between South Africa and California. He also successfully established a lecture series in collaboration with the Chinese government and a respected American university. Dr Jacob Ng's work has opened the door for many excited students to be able to get the necessary education to reach for their career goals and ambitions.

Dr Jacob Ng is dedicated to working with public and private organizations to leverage resources and support fund raising efforts and opportunities. He successfully raised more than $900,000 from industrial and business organizations to support business training needs. Jacob Ng's areas of expertise include clinical and mental health services, counseling and crisis intervention, student mental health services, conflict resolution, admissions and records, financial aid, accreditation, program reviews, accreditation self-study reports, enrollment management, student fee payments and collections, student government and leadership, student conduct and discipline, complaints and grievances, child care services, residency determination, international education, international partnerships and educational contract negotiations, international promotion and recruitment, international and out of state students, high school concurrent enrollment, student life, distance education, and international fund raising.

For his continued efforts in making the world a better to live, the mayor of the city of Oakland recognized May 17th, 2012 as 'Dr Jacob Ng Day'. As the global economy becomes more intertwined and more students have the desire and opportunity to seek higher education, Dr Jacob Ng's role in his community and the world will only become more expansive.

About: Dr Jacob Ng is a mental health services professional working with institutions of higher education to bring higher education opportunities to new places around the world.
