Speaking to the media, a representative of the company said, "We are excited to announce the launch of our site that is going to present a huge platform for travelers from all over the world to book their hotels in advance. The site will help viewers to find the best hotel as per their preference and pocket." He further added, "The competition is tough in the segment we are catering to but what makes us different from the others is that fact that you can find hotels, car rentals and flight booking, all on the platform. Just provide a few details related to the place you would be travelling along with your preferences and we will take care of the rest."

Experts of the field are of the view that the site is well designed and easy to navigate and that is likely to attract a lot more people to the same. Travelers just need to fill one form and provide details including destination, check-in date, check-out date, and number of persons and the list will appear as per the availability of rooms including all the possible options with user reviews. Viewers can get a fair idea about the place, hotel rooms and services.

The site gives an amazing discounts of up to 80 percent. The payment can be done in 28 different currencies. HomeoodSuitesDowntown.com offers its services in 30 different languages, which makes it easy for most to use platform. The site contains a detailed list of over 260,000 hotels, 600 airlines and a number of options for rental cars.
