

Extreme Car Show Rolls Into Parker on Aug. 23

The 8th annual Extreme Auto Car Show featuring over 75 classic cars from around the country will be held at event sponsor Extreme Auto Repair in Parker, CO

PARKER, CO, USA, August 13, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The 8th annual Extreme Auto Car Show featuring over 75 classic cars from around the country, will be held on Aug. 23, 2014, 9 a.m.-2 p.m., at event sponsor Extreme Auto Repair, 10274 S. Dransfeldt Rd, Parker, CO, one block west of Parker Road between Mainstreet and Lincoln Avenue.

Admission is free and attendees will be treated to barbecued hamburgers and hot dogs, refreshments, giveaways for adults and children, and auto repair discounts exclusively distributed at the car show. Donations of nonperishable food will be collected for the Parker Task Force & Food Bank.

The Extreme Auto Car Show will provide an extremely fascinating opportunity to view classic cars, carefully restored or maintained by private collectors, representing different eras of motor vehicle transportation.

"This annual event highlights our lifelong appreciation for the automobile and our commitment to the community," said Extreme Auto Repair owner and car show organizer, Dennis Brewster. "The show will be a trip down Nostalgia Lane for those who grew up with a love for automobiles. There will be something to see for people of all ages."

Extreme Auto Repair loyalty cards offering 20 percent off any repair service anytime a vehicle is brought to the shop over the next year will be available to attendees. The Drive Radio show will also be broadcasting onsite, offering insight and tips for taking proper care of your vehicle.

For more information, please contact Dennis Brewster at Extreme Auto Repair, (303) 841-1071.
