COLOMBO PILIYANDALA, WESTERN, SRI LANKA, August 20, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Press Release. August 29,2014.

Commonwealth Observer is an independent Newspaper. Published by Dr. Hemasiri Kuruppu PhD as Chief Editor and the publisher of said web paper in association with the Institute of Media Professionals of Sri Lanka.

We welcome news and current affairs, features, film critiques, book reviews, poems, cartoons and letters from the readers for social development and benefit of the people of the Commonwealth Countries and the world as well.

We categorize all subject material according to the Dewy Decimal Classification. We use this method for compilation and classification of news and features for easy reference.

We invite persons who wish to register with us as professional journalists, independent writers, Photographers, Cartoonists, Artists, Short story writers, academicians, natural and social scientists, scientific researchers, software developers, fashion designers, economists, demographers, active politicians, trade unionists, social reformers, religious dignitaries, press or media officers, Media Secretaries of the government ministries, departments and other institutions and all news agencies of the world and specially Commonwealth States.

Well wishers and the general public, The Commonwealth Observer is a good platform for you to speak and write on the burning issues you are facing. You can speak of any government or a leader in good faith and for the benefit of the society.

We highly appreciate your valued contributions for the development of this publication.
