

Bi-annual publication to focus on igaming in Malta

SiGMA is also releasing the SiGMA Magazine, a bi annual publication, with issue 1 coming out later this Fall at the Summit of iGaming in Malta.

MSIDA, MALTA, August 22, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SiGMA is one of the fastest growing gaming events in Europe, enjoying an active, fast-growing readership; continuous online presence with the latest news, supplemented on the most popular social media platforms, including Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn and Youtube.

To celebrate this feat, SiGMA is also releasing the SiGMA Magazine, a bi annual publication, with issue 1 coming out later this Fall at the Summit of iGaming in Malta. Each publication will be:

- Distributed by post to all gaming companies worldwide,
- Inserted in delegate bags at SiGMA event as well as other expos and conference in and outside Malta,

“There is so much happening on a weekly basis; mergers, acquisitions, new product launches, revised affiliate schemes, government schemes, SEO and related updates... the list is endless”. It’s high time that a publication is dedicated to shedding light on this important industry in Malta, responsible for some 12% of the domestic GDP.

Response for the very first publication due this Fall has been overwhelming, with c-level executives and industry leaders, all wanting to discuss about the industry trends. There is some interesting foresight out there, worthy of being published.

The aim, ultimately is to facilitate networking among industry leaders in Malta as well as to showcase the silicon valley of the igaming community worldwide, Malta, to the rest of the world.
