

2nd Annual China Securitization Forum will be held at Shanghai Lujiazui China.

SHANGHAI, SHANGHAI, CHINA, August 26, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- After the success of 1st China Securitization Congress, supports by Investment Association of China, 2nd Annual China Securitization Forum will be held on 13th -14th November at Shanghai Lujiazui China.

China has determined to steadily expand its asset securitization program to decentralize risks in the banking system as well as to vitalize capitals for economic investment. China is the world third largest debt capital market, with total outstanding amount of about 30 trillion RMB, of which, the securitization market only accounts for 90 billion or 0.3%, which leaves the securitization market in China with a huge growth potential. According to official data released recently, by the end of May this year, a total of 23 financial institutions had issued credit asset securitization products worth 179.3 billion RMB.

In June of 2014, Ping An Bank has successfully issued the first asset backed security to be listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchanges as the request for a broader investor base in Chinese ABS intensifies, which has marked a debut of the credit assets backed securities product on the SSE and a major progress made in the expanded trial of credit asset securitization in China. Ping An Bank's credit assets backed securities has explored and built a new model for the interflow of China's bond markets and exerted a profound influence on the Chinese bond market's long-term growth.

The First Securitization Congress have more than 300 global industry premier delegates from regulators, banks, securities, trustees, institutional investors, lawyers, ratings and accountings etc finance services. Besides, our media partner CBN, Hexun, Caixin and other media partners make full report of this event through video and theme magazines.

Moreover, there were speakers including Li De, Deputy Director from PBOC, Hu Ruyin, Chief Economist from Shanghai Stock Exchange, Wang Liuqi, Vice president from China Galaxy Securities, Chen Bo, Deputy Director from Shanghai Free trade Zone Research Center, Gao Zhanjun, Managing Director from CITIC Securities, present exclusive keynote address. Base on this, 2nd Annual China Securitization Forum will be act as China financial industry leading communication platform, and have an in-depth knowledge of securitization product innovation model, flow procedure and other topics.
