

Vikoz Enterprises and Major Plastics Manufacturer Close Deal for Plastic Powder, Pellets and Scrap

Vikoz Enterprises, the plastic recycling company announces a deal with a large U.S. and Canadian manufacturer of plastic powder, pellets and plant scrap.

SANDY, UTAH, USA, August 26, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Vikoz Enterprises announced today that the Sandy, Utah plastic recycling company has recently finalized a deal with a large U.S. and Canadian manufacturer of plastic powder, pellets and plastic scrap.

While full details on the agreement were not made public due to contractual terms, a Vikoz spokesperson did say this regarding the deal, "This agreement fits perfectly into our long term goal to provide feedstock to our customer base."

Vikoz expects to start receiving the first loads of plastic feedstock from their new partner within in the next couple of weeks from plants in Canada and Houston, Texas. The agreement run for one year starting July 1, 2014 and is subject to a 2 year renewal if all goes as expected. Vikoz's partner in this deal maintains plants in both the U.S. and Western Canada and the agreement between them is said to involve approximately 3 - 4 million pounds of mostly LLDPE and HDPE resin, for which Vikoz has deals pending with long time buyers.

Vikoz Enterprises is one of the largest plastic recycling companies in North America. They have been in the plastics recycling business for 18 years, recycling all grades of plastic and purchasing raw plastic scrap in any form, regrind or resin. Vikoz specializes in post-commercial and post-industrial accounts and offer grinding services, used plastic pallets, bins, totes, and boxes.
