

"THE PROMISE OF MICHAEL BROWN'S FERGUSON": IN SUPPORT OF YOUNG JOURNALISTS - WRITERS - CIVIL RIGHTS LAWYERS & LEADERS

TURN THE FERGUSON TRAGEDY INTO POSITIVE CHANGE FOR OUR COUNTRY - THROW YOUR SUPPORT BEHIND CIVIL RIGHTS & OUR FIRST AMENDMENT

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, UNITED STATES, September 9, 2014

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The purpose of this fund is to help promote and support the education and career of young Black and White journalists, writers, and Civil Rights lawyers, with a promise that they will grow into an army of professionals who can be deployed locally, and nationally to research, cover, and report on the news, also to provide legal services and assistance in situations such as the one that developed in Ferguson Missouri between August 9 and August 20, 2014, following the shooting death of unarmed 18-year old, Michael Brown by Ferguson police. The killing of Michael Brown was followed days later by the shooting death of a 25 year-old young man in St. Louis Missouri, and preceded just 3 weeks earlier by the choke-hold killing of Eric Garner, a 43 years old father of 6, in Staten Island, by New York police.

2014 - 2015 GOAL: $50,000

We will award this fund in the form of scholarships to support the following:

- The education and training of investigative reporters and writers who can investigate, cover and report on events such as Ferguson, in a way that can protect all, including police, journalists, demonstrators, and the public at the community.

- A campaign to bring about fundamental reform police training at the level of police academy, as well as community policing, and promote police community relations
- Reform in the justice system and the courts
- Training of young lawyers, particularly in the Black community, to help protect the rights of people arrested during protests and demonstrations, and to pursue civil rights actions on behalf of citizens caught up in police misconduct, abuse, harassment, and Civil Rights violations.

HOW THIS FUND WILL BE AWARDED

Scholarships from this fund will be awarded to low-income and minority students and young graduates, or those who aspire to work in those fields, to support the following:

ENGAGE AND BECOME A PARTNER

One person can make a difference. and everyone should try.

John F. Kennedy

Businesses, groups, professionals, individuals, journalist, Civil Rights leaders, and human rights and civil liberty organizations, are invited to join us in fostering change in the relationship between police and the public, as well as between Blacks and Whites, toward a more perfect Union.

You can support this effort by ordering among our services or products & gift items, or donate directly on our site. We are not a group, law firm, or political organization. What we are is a socially-conscious operated website, with our eye on the prize: The Great Good.
