

Gubernatorial Candidate Fisher Salutes Market Basket Employees

AUBURN, MA, USA, August 28, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mark Fisher, Republican Candidate for Governor of MA, congratulates the employees of Market Basket on their victory. Both their courage and resolve in sticking to their principles and standing together against the establishment of private business have been a wonderful example to us all.

"As a Tea party member, I admire your willingness to sacrifice much in order to fight against those who should be looking out for your interests. In my very short experience in politics I have met many cowards, deserters and traitors who cannot begin to comprehend your motivation. They refuse to take a stand or stand on both sides of every issue. You however are a different breed. You are a welcome breath of fresh air!

The Founders of our Country knew that important things are worth fighting for. They were not afraid of sacrifice. They dedicated their lives, fortunes and sacred honor to the cause of Freedom. They knew that they had to hang together or hang separately. In much the same way you hung together against tremendous pressure and the threat of losing your jobs, and possibly your homes and the means to finance your education.

President Kennedy spoke of individuals like yourselves in his book, Profiles in Courage. Take pride in what you have accomplished.

All Hail the Courageous Employees of Market Basket!"

All of Mark's stances on the issues can be found on at his campaign website, www.markfisher2014.com.
