

Sycor and Microsoft® Sign Global ISV Partnership

Sycor announces its alliance with Microsoft® as a Global Independent Software Vendor (GISV) for the rental of mobile goods and fleet management industries.

GOTTINGEN, GERMANY, September 11, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "With our solutions Sycor.Rental and Sycor.Fleet based on Microsoft Dynamics AX 2012, we have been contributing substantially to the optimal management of rental and fleet management businesses for years and we have managed to create a unique added value for this business," says Marco Arndt, CEO Sycor Asia who has global responsibility for Partner Management with regards to Microsoft Dynamics AX activities. "And although our solutions are globally deployable, scalable, flexible, and proven in practice, it is still our goal to further enhance them." As a result of this dedication to offer innovative, high-quality solutions in combination with Sycor`s strong global performance capabilities, the company has been invited to join the Microsoft® Global Independent Software Vendor (GISV) program.

Upon signing this partnership agreement Sycor becomes one of a limited number of Global ISV Partners worldwide, "We are proud to have been invited to join the Microsoft® Global ISV program. This is proof of our strategic efforts to develop tailored, quality-assured solutions for our customers that meet their specific needs. We will be working even more closely with Microsoft's R&D, Product Management and Product Marketing teams in the future, and this is going to add to our ability to offer unparalleled added value to our customers," says Frank Jakobi, Sycor Vice President in charge of the global Microsoft Dynamics AX activities.

"We are delighted to be working with Sycor as a strategic partner for the rental and fleet management industries. Combining its unique industry solutions based on Microsoft Dynamics AX with its strong global delivery capabilities for large-scale implementations, Sycor has the capability of delivering amazing value to its customers," underlines Patrick Fitzhenry, Microsoft Director of Global ISV Partners.

The Sycor Group is an international full-range service provider for Microsoft Dynamics AX, supporting its customers along their entire value chain. With almost 500 employees worldwide and consulting expertise "Made in Germany", Sycor offers a full range of services for the ERP solution Microsoft Dynamics AX 2012 and its legacy versions: consulting, development, implementations, international roll-outs and training. Sycor also delivers comprehensive operating services, from hosting to multilingual support.
