

Multifunding LLC. Launches New Website

VisibleLending.Com Provides Open Directory of Short-Term Online Business Capital Providers

PHILADELPHIA, PA, USA, September 16, 2014

/EINPresswire.com/ -- MultiFunding LLC is pleased to announce the launch of its new partner site, www.visiblelending.com. The new site is an open directory of short-term online business capital providers.

The VisibleLending website was created as a resource for both consumers and the online business lending industry. In a hope to provide more transparency for both subsets, VisibleLending will display known information about lenders and brokers in the short-term lending arena.

Currently, there are approximately 200 companies in the directory. The number will grow as consumers and lenders alike add to the database. The brokers, cash advance merchants and lenders listed in the directory often times offer interest rates as high as 200%, lending billions of dollars, yet there is inadequate information available about these companies.

VisibleLending aims to solve the problem of lack of information or misinformation regarding short-term online business capital providers. Users are able to add companies and comment on experiences with short-term online providers of loans and advances, and companies are able to add or update their listing with pertinent information.

The new VisibleLending site is produced and published by www.MultiFunding.com. www.MultiFunding.com does not endorsing any of the companies. For more information, visit www.visiblelending.com.
