AIRWAYS Aviation international student Thanesh Jayandran has used the global company to see his dream of becoming a pilot take flight.

BILINGS, QLD, AUSTRALIA, September 18, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- AIRWAYS Aviation international student Thanesh Jayandran has used the global company to see his dream of becoming a pilot take flight.

Mr Jayandran, originally from Malaysia, completed his first solo flight earlier this month as he edges closure to completing his aeroplane Private Pilot Licence (PPL-A).

“Having completed my first solo flight means a lot to me,” Mr Jayandran said.

“The sense of accomplishment of having been able to command an aircraft all by myself is definitely amazing.

“Besides landing there is a real sense of accomplishment from knowing that you were behind the controls.

“I was always looking forward to my solo flight and having reached that level of competency was an incredible feeling.”

With the major career milestone successfully ticked off Mr Jayandran is now looking ahead to what is shaping up to be an exciting future.

“My goal is to be able to fly for world-renowned airlines across the globe,” he said.

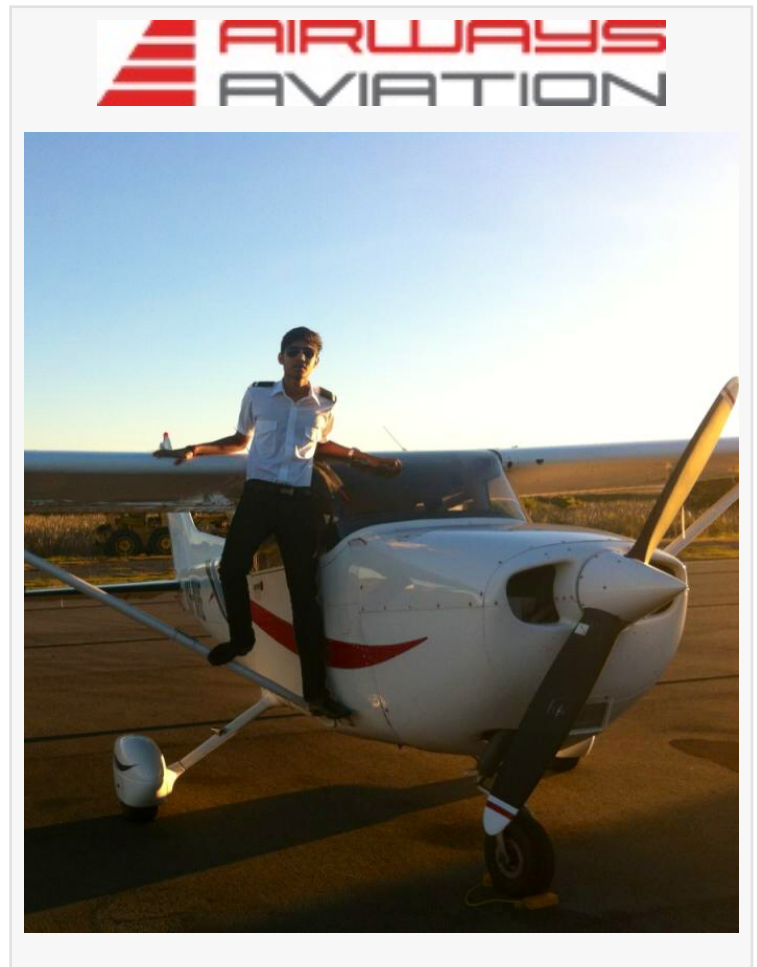

Mr Jayandran revealed his love of flying and his respect for those in control dated back to his early years.

“I’ve dreamt of becoming a pilot since I was a young boy,” he said.

“I’ve always admired pilots for being very bold people that share a great passion and enthusiasm of flying passengers around the world safely which is a really huge responsibility.

“While traveling on planes I’ve always enjoyed staring out the window while admiring the breathtaking view from above the clouds.

“It made me realise that an office with a view would beat a desk job any day.”

Mr Jayandran said the professional approach by Airways Aviation had given him confidence to pursue a career in the industry.

“Airways Aviation has given me great support in helping me kick start my voyage into the aviation industry,” he said.

“Everyone at Airways Aviation has given me an immense amount of support throughout my journey to becoming a pilot.”

Mr Jayandran will continue to study and fly with Airways Aviation until he completes his Private Pilot Licence.
