

Protegrity Advisors Releases Long Island M&A Report

LONG ISLAND, NY, UNITED STATES, October 2, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Protegrity Advisors, a leading regional mergers and acquisitions advisory firm, today announced the release of its M&A report for the Long Island region.

The report, which covers Nassau and Suffolk Counties for the period between January 2009 and September 2014, provides an overall look at aggregate M&A volume, business valuations, deal count by industry, average deal size and 2014 year to date figures.

“We created the report as a tool for local business owners to assess the level of M&A activity on Long Island and to see how business valuations were trending,” said Bruce Newman, President of Protegrity’s M&A practice.

As highlighted in the report, M&A transactions on Long Island for 2014 have already surpassed $1.0 billion for the first time ever, while the average selling price is nearly double the average for 2013. “The recent surge in activity and business valuations points to a very positive environment for business owners who are thinking about the sale of their business,” said Newman.
