

Eastgate Manor, Supportive Living Illinois Facility, Celebrates Oktoberfest

Eastgate Manor, assisted living facility in Illinois, celebrates Oktoberfest with residents and guests. Polka Entertainer, Eddie Korosa, Jr. will perform.

ALGONQUIN, IL, USA, October 3, 2014 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Eastgate Manor will celebrate its annual "Oktoberfest" on Friday October 3, 2014. The supporting living Illinois facility will host its annual community fall event for both residents and guests. Attendees will enjoy an afternoon of fun, food and traditional German music.

"Oktoberfest is another great opportunity to bring awareness to supportive living in Illinois. We're looking forward to celebrating with our residents and hopefully meeting new seniors who might be looking for a new place to call home," said Maureen Warren, Community Liaison, Eastgate Manor (<http://www.eastgatemanor.com>).

The event includes lunch and live entertainment. Oktoberfest attendees are invited to sing-a-long and dance to the amazing sounds of waltzes, polkas and German folk music. Music will be provided by Eddie Korosa, Jr, an award winning Polka player. Eddie Korosa, Jr. has appeared in the media multiple times, from commercials to movies; including, "Home Alone" as part of John Candy's Polka band. And now Korosa will be visiting the Illinois assisted living facility to enhance this Oktoberfest celebration!

Oktoberfest at Eastgate Manor takes place on Friday, October 3 from 12:15-3:30 p.m. at Eastgate Manor, 101 Eastgate Court, Algonquin, IL.

To join Eastgate Manor for their annual Oktoberfest festival, visitors must RSVP. Space is limited. RSVPs can be made to Maureen Warren at maureen.warren@eastgatemanor.com or by calling 847-458-2800.
