

Dads Take Their Children to School Day Huge Success Says Brightside Academy

Brightside Academy's New York locations held a Dads Take Your Child to School Day on September 16.

PITTSBURGH, PA, USA, October 3, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Brightside Academy's New York locations held a Dads Take Your Child to School Day on September 16, 2014.

Brightside Academy believes a supportive environment promotes discovery and growth for children. Part of that environment includes having our children's fathers more involved with their education and care. In many families, mothers are the ones we see dropping off and picking up their children, volunteering their time at school and helping with their learning and development.

"Fathers play a major role in fostering social-emotional, cognitive, language and motor development in young children," stated Dave Bryant, Director of Enrollment Management and Marketing. "The Dads Take Your Children to School Day event at our New York academies is just the beginning of Brightside Academy's efforts to find innovative ways to promote more fathers to influence their children's academic success."

Throughout the day, our children's fathers were involved with crafts, reading, music, play time and other learning opportunities at our academies. Thank you to all the fathers who actively participate in all aspects of their children's lives.

Brightside Academy is a leader in child care and early education that provides all families access to an excellent early educational experience. Brightside Academy has accepted the challenge of providing affordable, quality care that meets the educational needs of today's children. We provide a unique learning environment that encourages growth and development. With the right educational leadership and curriculum our children develop the language, literacy and social skills needed for life-long success.
