ORLANDO, FL, USA, October 5, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hillcrest Dermatology and Plastic Surgery, P.A. (www.mynewbeauty.com) recently expanded by adding an office in The Villages, offering residents convenient access to a board-certified plastic surgeon and a board-certified dermatologist in both Orlando and Lady Lake, FL.

"Since the Hillcrest Aesthetic Institute first opened in Orlando, patients have asked about when we would expand to The Villages," says plastic surgeon Dr. Kenrick Spence, the practice's founder and medical director. "We carefully planned the expansion — and updated our name — to ensure we would meet the exceptional standards for patient care we set at our original location."

Dr. Spence says the thriving practice, now known as Hillcrest Dermatology and Plastic Surgery, also recently expanded its services with the addition of Dr. Jeffrey B. Stricker, a dermatopathologist and dermatologist who specializes in Mohs skin cancer surgery and the treatment of skin conditions such as acne and rosacea.

"I'm pleased to be a part of such an exciting growth phase for Hillcrest," Dr. Stricker says. "The opening of the new office has already been a wonderful step forward, as we've been able to better reach so many patients."

The Villages office, which began offering services earlier this year, is located in Summit Plaza and features a comfortable lobby and warm colors meant to reflect the friendly smiles of the practice's professional and medical staff.

Dr. Spence and Dr. Stricker both treat patients at each location, where skin care, dermatology, aesthetic plastic surgery, and facial rejuvenation services are available.

"Our loyal patients never complained about traveling for aesthetic treatments such as injections of BOTOX® Cosmetic at our Orlando location," Dr. Spence says. "But now with BOTOX at our Villages location in Lady Lake, we're offering more convenience with the same great service. We've even launched a new Saturday schedule at both locations."

The addition of the new office continues the evolution of the practice, which has long been recognized as a premier medical spa and skin care center, in addition to providing well-regarded cosmetic surgery services for patients throughout central Florida, around the United States, and throughout the world.
