

The world's most senior-level annual oil and gas-LNG event held in and on Africa

Global Pacific & Partners are pleased to advise on the following updates on the 21st Africa Oil Week/Africa Upstream Conference:

THE HAGUE, THE NETHERLANDS, October 7, 2014
/EINPresswire.com/ -- The 21st Africa Oil Week/Africa Upstream Conference will once again shape the Continental deal flow, critical relationships, and showcase the countries and corporate players making the future – in exploration across new frontiers and established basins, with new technologies, in oil/energy finance, and across the value chain. Since 1994 this event has been widely recognised for forging and enhancing relationships between both companies and governments. As numerous top-level executives in the global industry have oft-noted, Africa Upstream-Africa Oil Week stands apart from all other events as a leading meeting in the global oil-gas calendar.

Over 100 top-level corporate speakers - all re-confirmed

- Apart from several Ministers, over 30 Governments and African National Oil Companies are in attendance.
- Sold-out Exhibition of 150+ stands - but have now added 6 new stands to create additional exhibition space.
- Expected attendance now likely at or beyond last year's record number (1,600), with over 1,250 delegates from around the world already registered to come – and many more senior executives signing-in daily.
- Monday-Friday blue-chip networking and five-star social functions: breakfasts, cocktail receptions, and waterfront dinners, with the end-of-conference Grand Africa Beach Café Braai-BBQ.

- New Sponsors include: HRT Petroleum (Brazil), Cairn India, Aiteo Production & Development Company, Norton Rose Fulbright, Valient Energy, Petrolin Group, Greenberg Traurig
- Media Support: The Financial Times
