

BridgeStreet Global Hospitality Named 2014 “Best Serviced Apartments” By Association of Relocation Professionals

HERNDON, VA, UNITED STATES, October 8, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- HERNDON, Va. – Oct. 3, 2014 – BridgeStreet Global Hospitality was recently recognized by the Association of Relocation Professionals as the recipient of the 2014 “Serviced Accommodation Award.” Judged by an independent panel of top relocation professionals, this award furthers BridgeStreet’s position as the top global provider of serviced apartments and an industry leader.

Introduced alongside BridgeStreet’s 2014 rebrand, this accolade recognizes the company’s widely lauded family of brands, which are leading the serviced apartment industry in addressing product clarification and service offering consistency. The award also commends BridgeStreet for its innovative business intelligence and reporting platform that allows clients to respond decisively to current market conditions and review historical data. However, it was glowing testimonials from a number of BridgeStreet clients that impressed the judges most.

“BridgeStreet’s mission is to make relocation easy for clients, and we are delighted to receive this notable award celebrating hospitality excellence in the relocation industry,” said BridgeStreet’s Managing Director of International Operations, Shaun Hinds. “As proud providers of serviced accommodations, it is an honor to be recognized for our superior service by industry buyers and enthusiasts.”

Organized by the Association of Relocation Professionals – the U.K.’s leading authority on the professional relocation industry – the ARP Awards recognize and celebrate achievements of the corporate relocation industry’s leading businesses. From accommodation providers and destination services to educational consultants, the ARP recognizes those companies with outstanding performance in their chosen field over the last 12 months.

In other recent awards, BridgeStreet was also named the runner-up Corporate Housing Provider of the Year at the American Expatriate Management and Mobility Awards (EMMAs). The company has been named Corporate Housing Provider of the Year since 2012.
