

Tate Publishing and Author Austin Burbank ink fourth book deal!

Rutland, VT—Tate Publishing and author Austin Burbank have inked their fourth book deal for the 2015 release of Burbank's new book in his Tinmouth Pond Series.

RUTLAND, VT, USA, October 21, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Director of Book Acquisitions, Stacy Baker said, "Austin Burbank will continue his Tinmouth Pond Series with his fourth book, which will chronicle the life of Helga from her rural Asian beginnings to her magical journey to Sweden and then her life at Tinmouth Pond. It will reunite Helga with Timmy the Tinmouth Pond monster, and everyone will be surprised how their relationship began.

“The first three books of the series are more than a children's book series. There are a lot of issues that Austin deals with that many children and many more adults have dealt with during their lives. He tells a lot of his own personal life experiences through the lives of his characters at picturesque Tinmouth Pond, located in the mountains of Vermont. He deals with family, personal, cultural, community and interpersonal issues in such a way that most readers may not realize that he is teaching important life-long lessons.

Stacy Baker

“Austin created these books from his own personal experience at Tinmouth Pond, his life on a dairy farm in Vermont and his personal relationships throughout his life. He added magic, a sense of wonder, and incorporated the idea that dreams can come true if you are true to yourself and care about others hoping to inspire others to live the best life they can. There are some wonderful lessons to be learned from his writings for both young and old. He has also found that people that don't read books on a regular basis are reading his books because his writing style actually produces images of his characters and action in their minds.”
