

Local author, host, songwriter to ink book bringing awareness on homelessness

SAINT ALBANS, N.Y. — Local author Elizabeth Heggs recently teamed up with Tate Publishing to publish her new book Homeless in the House.

SAINT ALBANS, NY, USA, October 21, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Elizabeth Heggs worked as a nurse for twenty-five years, and has always felt compassion for the less fortunate. "I began to work with the homeless that were on the street. I gave them food, water, blankets... [Then] I became more aware of my surroundings and thereby discovered that it had invaded in my very home," shared Heggs. After interviewing a few of the homeless people she had helped and almost experiencing the same situation, she was stirred to write something up to circumvent the same situation from happening to others.

"I began to work with the homeless that were on the street. I gave them food, water, blankets..."

Elizabeth Heggs

She hopes Homeless in the House will serve as a means of spreading awareness and 'early detection' of homelessness for families and friends of those who find themselves in this heartbreaking situation. She hopes readers "can relate and show compassion and light on someone who is... going through [homelessness]."

Published by Tate Publishing and Enterprises, the book will be available upon its release through bookstores nationwide, from the publisher at www.tatepublishing.com/bookstore, or by visiting barnesandnoble.com or amazon.com.

Elizabeth Heggs is married to Elder Robert Heggs, Proprietor of the TV Broadcasting Company Preparing the Way for the Coming King and also is co-hosting with him on the show. Aside from being a writer, she is also a dynamic vocalist, entrepreneur, songwriter, and manages her own publishing company, ASCAP, and her own independent record label, PC Records. When Heggs is not managing, singing or writing songs, she finds time to volunteer in many outreach programs.
