

Mark Mingle, Director of Marketing Leads Tate Publishing To New Heights

Oklahoma City, OK - Tate Publishing Director of Marketing, Mark Mingle has achieved a new milestone in the publishing industry.

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK, USA, October 22, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mark Mingle has been with Tate Publishing for nearly a decade. Mark Mingle runs a proud department that is the industry leader for both new and established authors. While leading Tate Publishing Mark has overseen not only the sale of millions of books, but he has created one of the most robust and supportive marketing departments in the entire publishing industry.

"Most people don't realize that Mark and his team do more than just sell books. Mark has created a marketing machine that is basically unrivaled in our industry. From PR, publicity, bookings, manufacturing and distribution - when an author enters into Mark's department they begin to truly experience what it takes to achieve success as an author. We couldn't be more blessed to have Mark with us and we are looking forward to the next decade of his leadership and success." - Ryan Tate, President & CEO of Tate Publishing.

Ryan Tate

Mark and his family reside in Oklahoma where Mark has quietly built one of the largest and most effective marketing departments in the publishing industry. When asked about his tenure and success Mark had the following to say, "God has truly blessed me with the opportunity to serve authors. When coming out of seminary I never imagined that my calling would be to spread the Gospel through authors. I couldn't be more grateful for the opportunities that has provided me, but most importantly I love that I enjoy what I do when I wake up each morning!"
