

Tate Publishing and Authors Marie Janousek and Mary Janousek Looking at a Second Book Deal!

Live Oak, FL— Tate Publishing's success continues to grow as they market books for some great authors, like Mary Janousek and Marie Janousek!

LIVE OAK, FL, USA, October 27, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Director of Book Acquisitions, Stacy Baker said, "We worked with Marie and Mary on their first book, 'Our Trip to Israel: A Pilgrimage to the Holy Land.' We know they are talented, and when we found we had the opportunity to work with them on a second book, we jumped on it!"

"Marie Janousek had a childhood dream, which became their first book. She wanted to see the site where Lord Jesus was born. This seemed to be an impossible dream for a middle-aged, middle-class, ordinary suburban housewife. Miraculously, her dream came true. In December 1983, she traveled with her daughter, Mary, and a group of fellow Catholics from her parish, St. Mary of Celle Church in Berwyn, Illinois. This quest started at O'Hare International Airport in Chicago had a layover in Copenhagen, Denmark, and finally arrived at the Ben-Gurion Airport in Israel. This book tells the true story straight from her personal travel journal.

"Marie's story starts out with these words, 'We searched the roadway for His sign. Yearning to catch a spark and taste the scented wine which emanates a balm that is divine. So we went to Israel.' It was the first time either Marie or Mary had traveled overseas. Israel proved to be a more exciting destination than either one of them could have imagined. Mary also kept a notebook during their travels. Dive into their adventures as you read about their visits to Tel-Aviv, Nazareth, Bethlehem, Jerusalem, Masada, and the Dead Sea region."
