

Charleston, South Carolina REALTOR® Herb Uthlaut Receives Military Relocation Professional Certification

The MRP Certification Is For Real Estate Professionals Who Want To Work With Current And Former Military Service Members

CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA, USA, October 30, 2014

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Herb Uthlaut is a Certified Military Relocation Professional in the State of South Carolina, having completed his certification requirements in March, 2014.

Herb is currently with Coldwell Banker, United REALTORS®. "I've worked with Military referrals from USAA and Navy Federal through CARTUS for the past several years," says Herb. "So I thought that taking the MRP course would help me provide even better service to the Military community. I really appreciate their service and commitment to our country and I've found that our Military members are goal-oriented, they know what they want, and they're very organized and responsible with their paperwork, which makes them a pleasure to work with."

Herb Uthlaut

Herb comes from a background in the Military. His father served in the army in Italy following WWII and was recalled during the Korean War. Herb was born in the Army Hospital at Fort Bliss, Texas while his father was stationed there.

Prior to working in the Real Estate profession, Herb was a pharmaceutical sales representative for GlaxoSmithKline, where many of his accounts included Military hospitals and clinics in South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia and even Germany. "I took an early retirement," he says. "I wanted to have my own business and Real Estate offered me the opportunity to do that. It also allowed me to continue to be of service with professionalism and integrity as well as to maintain my detail-oriented approach to business."

Herb Uthlaut graduated from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill where he met and later married his beautiful wife MaryEllen. They have four children and six grandchildren. One of their sons is an active-duty Ranger with the United States Army and a nephew is currently active-duty in the United States Army as well.

Herb is a top producer and in 2013 was recognized as a REALTOR® of Distinction by the Charleston Trident Association of REALTORS® and also as an International Sterling Society Member for Coldwell Banker, United REALTORS®.

Aside from working with Military families relocating to or from Joint Base Charleston (which is an amalgamation of Charleston Air Force Base and the Naval Weapons Station Charleston), Herb serves both buyers and sellers in the Charleston, Summerville, North Charleston, Mt. Pleasant, Hanahan, Goose Creek, Moncks Corner and James Island communities.

Herb is certified as an Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR®), a Seniors Real Estate Specialist (SRES®), and an Internet specialist (e-PRO®). He also has been certified as a Certified Distressed Property Expert (CDPE®) and Short Sale and Foreclosure Resource (SFR), so if you are facing potential foreclosure, he has been specially trained to help you avoid this very difficult situation.

Herb is active as an Elder at Scots Kirk Presbyterian Church in Summerville, South Carolina. He is an Eagle Scout, and was awarded the Silver Beaver Award after working with local Boy Scout Troops for many years. He also enjoys hunting and woodworking.

Herb loves living in Charleston, which has been named the Number One tourist destination for the past two years by Condé Nast. Charleston is a city rich in history from pre-revolutionary times and is famous for its great food and hospitality. Its coastal location provides ample opportunity for boating and fishing.

Charleston is a great place to live as well as to visit. It is home to various Universities and higher learning institutions including The Citadel - Military College of South Carolina, Charleston Southern University and the College of Charleston as well as The Charleston School of Law and The Medical University of South Carolina.

Charleston has rich cultural opportunities including the Southeastern Wildlife Exposition and the Spoleto and MOJA Arts Festivals.

Charleston is famous for its golf courses, top-rated tennis courts, pristine beaches, Patriots Point Naval and Maritime Museum, and beautifully preserved architecture.
